

HAVE GOT

■ Complete the sentences with have got or has got.

1. My sister a bike.
2. Maria and Peter three children.
3. We a dog and two cats.
4. George two sisters.
5. She a new dress.
6. I a new skateboard.
7. My house a big garden.

▲ Complete the sentences with haven't got or hasn't got.

1. I a cat.
2. Oscar a TV in his room.
3. You short hair.
4. My parents two cars.
5. Your cat got blue eyes.
6. We a big house.
7. He an ice cream.

HAVE GOT

Choose the correct option.

1. Thomas have got / has got a smartphone.
2. Jemma has got / hasn't got a printer.
3. Thomas has got / hasn't got a flash drive.
4. Jemma has got / have got a gamepad.
5. Thomas hasn't got / haven't got a keyboard.
6. Jemma have got / has got a tablet.
7. Thomas haven't got / hasn't got headphones.
8. Thomas and Jemma hasn't got / haven't got a mouse.

HAVE GOT

Change the sentences into interrogative form.

- 1. My sister has got a cat. → Has my sister got a cat?
- 2. Mary has got two dogs. →
- 3. The bus has got one door. →
- 4. My parents have got a car. →
- 5. They have got new friends. →
- 6. My mother has got a job. →
- 7. You have got dark hair. →
- 8. We have got glasses. →
- 9. Joe has got blue eyes. →
- 10. I have got a passport. →
- 11. Jane has got a guitar. →
- 12. They have got books. →
- 13. You have got flowers. →
- 14. She has got a cup of tea. →
- 15. Tom has got a present. →
- 16. I have got new pencils. →