

Some - Any

- Choose some or any.

- We don't need some / any flour.
- Can I have some / any water, please?
- There is some / any milk in the fridge.
- Are there some / any eggs in the fridge?
- There are some / any cats in the garden.
- I don't have some / any money.
- There aren't some / any oranges on the table.
- Have you got some / any brothers or sisters?
- I'm lonely. I don't have some / any friends.
- There are some / any parrots in the cage.
- There is some / any money in my wallet.
- We haven't got some / any bananas.
- Can I have some / any more tea, please?
- I have some / any news for you.
- I have got some / any books.

Some - Any

- Complete with some, any, a or an.

- Is there butter in the fridge?

- Give me banana, please.

- I don't want tea. Thank you.

- Are there grapes?

- We need apple and strawberries for the cake.

- I want hot dog, please.

- We don't have milk left.

- Does she drink milk?

- I don't like vegetables.

- I need drink.

- Have we got potatoes?

- Do you want orange?

- We have got cherries so we can make dessert.

- There isn't sugar.

- I'm making tuna sandwich for you.

Some - Any

- Complete with some, or any.

- Pam has got pens.

- Have you got friends?

- I haven't got brothers.

- Tom has sent e-mails.

- We have new subjects.

- Have you got CDs?

- Have you got money?

- There are good films on TV tonight.

- I can't see cars in the street but I can see people.

- She can't buy it because she hasn't got money.

- Is there water in the jug? There isn't

- We are writing letters to Germany.

- I want fresh eggs; have you got ?

- You have a lot of apples; please give me

- He wants more pudding. Give him